Summary: Hiccup has just entered high school and has trouble fitting in. So his senior brother Jack whats to help turn him from the skinny hipster he is to the handsome prep he really is. Some hiccstrid some jelsa modern au rated t for swearing

1. notice not a chapter

Okay so I saw frost bud then I saw some hijack pictures on deviatART where they looked more like brothers. So I decided to make a fanfic where they are brothers instead of boyfriends I had this idea for along time

2. Chapter 1

okay so i had this crazy that hiccup is telling the story when as his 20 year old self but he's telling the story about his 15 year old self so just imagine like it a movie where at the beginning his he's adult self and the rest of the movie up to the end he's his teenage self and with jack do what ever you want btw hiccup would look cuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuute in glasses so for this and all my modern au's he wears glasses my name is Hiccup Frost Haddock. My freshman year was one i will never forget it all happened about five years ago. I was not the kind of guy that became the school's most popular kid. At first I could not fit in, but I learned how to anyway. I'll tell you how, but you'll have to listen very close cues this won't just help you fit in high school but it will help you fit in anywhere you go. This is my story.

I was home schooled in my whole grade and middle school period, because my parents knew I got nervous in big crowd I still do ,but not as much as i used to. once I hit high school my parents decided it was time for me to start socializing so I went through the biggest change in my life... public school.

one the first day of school I woke up at the sound sound of the world's loveliest sound (sarcastically of course)... my alarm clock and then I put on my glasses. it was the first time I went to public school so i wanted to make an impression it took me an hour to decide what to wear (now I know it feels like to be a girl) finally I gave up and just put on my favorite t-shirt a pair of jeans combat boots and a hoodie.

As I came down for breakfast where i found my older brother Jack in his usual clothes as we where eating "hicc, we are gonna be late so dad wants me to drive you to school" he said with food in his mouth "sure" I said as jack was driving to school I was looking out the window. "it's your freshman year are you exited?" he asked "no" I answered "are you nervous" he asked. I took a deep breath let it go then replied "no"
